PLYMOUTH CHURCH Pic-Nic .- The members of the Rev. Dr. Beecher's Church and the Sandaycol proceeded on an excursion to Davids s Island yesterday. A steamboat and three barges were charered to carry them, altogether forming quite a large party, estimated at some thousands. The Sunday-School was preceded by Dodworth's Band and a large silken banner, bearing a representation of Christ entering Jerusalem, and the name and date of the organization of the school. The children made a brilhant and interesting appearance.

THE NEWARK CHURCH DIFFICULTY.

From The Newark Advertiser, June 18.

The New-York journals, this morning, publish a ridiculous account of a riot, which has evidently been imposed upon them by some telegraphic correspondent. The incident that formed the pretext of it would hardly have found a place in print, if it had not been exaggerated, and so conspicuously set forth as to compromise in some degree the fair fame of a peace-loving and orderly community such as ours has uniformly been. There was no riot, nor any such disturbance as the dispatch alleges, nor any similar occurrence that was generally known at the time by the residents of the immediate vicinity.

The facts are simply, that a resident of Park place, back of Trinity Church, protests against the enlargement of that edifice, and the effice of Chancellor being now vacant, he could not procure an injunction ty stay the proceedings till the right of the Church to build on the public common could be decided in a Court of Justice. He therefore served a notice on the Vestry yesterday, informing them of his intention to prosecute the matter, and in the evening went out, accompanied only by his hired man, and cut way the portion of the fence which obstracted a path upon the common, and cut off from his residence the view down town. This was his own work, without any riotous assembly, or disturbance of the peace; and he retired quietly immediately after the performance—which would not have attracted any public notice if the account of it had not swelled to such absurdly formidable proportions in the papers this morning.

midable proportions in the papers this morning.

The Trinty Church has occupied its present location on the military park for more than a century, and the congregation have always claimed that their title is as good as that of any private citizen in Newark to his own residence. For several years, an enlargement is as good as that of any private citizen in Newark to his own residence. For several years, an enlargement and improvement of the church edifice has been in contemplation, and at the last parish meeting, on Easter Monday, it was considered to have become so necessary that the congregation directed the vestry at once to proceed with such alterations. At the April meeting of the Common Council the Vestry procented a memorial setting forth the grounds upon which they rest their claim of title, the fact of their long and undisputed possession, the absolute necessity for the alterations contemplated, giving the details of such alterations as far as possible. The Common Council unanimously adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That, without entering upon the question of legal rights, the Common Council will interpose no objection to the extension of the rear of Trinty Chursh, as proposed in their memorial, and the inclosure of said Church; and that said extension shall not exceed 20 feet, nor be higher than the roof of the body of said Church; and that said fence shall not inclose a space of more than 10 feet on each side, nor more than 7 feet beyond said extension in the rear.

Immediately thereupon the vestry commenced to procure their plans and specifications, which are just completed, and their contracts made with Abner S. Reeve to do the mason work, and Gould & Moore the cargenter work. In order to do as little damage as possible to the Park, the Street Commissioner restricted carpenter work. In order to do as little damage as possible to the Park, the Street Commissioner restricted the operations of the workmen to a space of 25 feet around the church edifice, and the vestry yesterday commenced the inclosure of said 25 feet by a temporary around the church editice, and the vestry yesterday commenced the inclosure of said 25 feet by a temporary board fence.

Last evening, Mr. John R. Pierson, the property holder above alluded to, who feels most interested in opposing the extension, in consequence of its obstruction to his view, went out with his man and destroyed with an axe a few feet of the temporary fence. He protested against the extension some time ago, by a petition to the Common Council. It is Mr. Pierson's purpose, we understand, to resist the effort to build the extension—peaceably if practicable, but forcibly if he must. On the other hand, we are assured that the Church have no desire not intention to occupy a single inch of the Park more than is necessary, nor than they are entitled to by the strictest construction of the rules of law and equity.

The subject will probably be brought before the Common Council again at its meeting to-morrow evening, on a petition to rescind the previous resolution not to object to this extension, and an effort will be anade to induce Council to open the common now occupied by the Church, by a removal of the difice. There is no doubt, we believe, that the Council has the power to do this—upon allowing proper compensation to the vestry. In that case they would build their edifice elsewhere in the vicinity.

The erection of the fence was continued to-day, but the part cut down has not yet been recreeted.

[By Telegraph.]

Newark, Thursday, June 16, 1859.

The portion of the fence on the Military Park, proposed to be taken for the enlargement of Trinity Charch, which was torn down last night, was not put up again to-day, and some thought this would end the matter; but about dark to-night a crowd commenced to gather at the church, and at 94 o'clock begun to demolish the fence which still remained standing. The fence was torn down and mostly carried away amid the shouting and cheering of the assemblage. The Mayor and Chief of Police were on the ground, and though the latter expressed his willingness to obey any order, no attempt was made to arrest any of the party. People can now be seen standing about the street corners, discussing the occurrence. It was at one time feared that the church would be assaulted, but as soon as the fence was completely down, the crowd retired

THE ATTEMPTED MURDER.—Yesterday Mrs. Anna THE ATTEMPTED ACRESS.—I esterolar Arts. And I vers of No. 14 Sussex street, Jersey City, who was so dreadful beaten the day previous by Robert Cook, for refusing to acceed to his wishes, was somewhat better, and Dr. Quidor, the Ci Physician, has stronghopes of her recovery. The hemorrhanton may set in: On Wednesday night officer Dunn succeed in finding Cook in the First Ward, and arrested and convey bias to the County Jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

HEAVY LOSS OR ROBBERY.—Yesterday afternoon Mr. J. M. Ellett, printer at No. 12 Old Slip, New York, and re-siding at No. 164 Grand-street, Jersey City, either lost or was robbed of a wallet containing checks, drafts, and notes, amounting to $1,700, and $75 in hills, while on his way figure. Mr. Ellet took out his wallet at the corner of Montagemer, had Warren streets, to purchase some berries at a stand, and after proceeding half a block missed the wallet from his packet. Information was given at Police Headquarters, and Chief of Police Marinus detailed an officer to investigate the finance.

DISEASE AMONG HATTERS.—At the meeting of the Newark Medical Association on Mondat, evening, an interesting report was made in regard to a diseast e prevalent among hatters in this vicinity, in which the Commit set to whom the subject was referred state that, in the prepare ion of some kinds of stock mercury is employed, and that V as salivation, some mouth, tremors and febrile reaction are em² arely due to the effects of this delection agent.

THE SUSSEX POIS ONING CASE—The Port Jervis Union has the following an reference to Dr. Wickham:

"Dr. Wickham, who was undoubtedly the leading spirit in the conspiracy, and who "diministered the fatal does of arsenic to the guite of a harmles" esthartic, is the son of a wealthy and respectable farmer of the "count of Greenville, in this country. The Doctor is about thir, y years of age, a fine looking man, well educated and intelligent. This is by no means his first crime. Several years since I awas implicated in a resurrection case, from the penal come "quences of which he narrowly escaped. He is reputed to I ave been for years past in extendive practice through this seed ion as an abortionist. It is even stand, upon what we believe to be good authority, that only a few days since, while the I "westigation in Mrs. Cole's case was in progress, a married wor man in the town of Wantage, N. J., came to her death under the "prestice."

"Another fact in his career is worthy of note in this connection: It has transpired recently that he had effected an inscrance with a New-York Company, a year or two ago, for a large sam, upon the life of a notorrous weman who is frequently seen in the attracts of Port Jervis. The developments in the case of Mrs attracts of Port Jervis. The developments in the case of Mrs another victim. Indeed, the summing up of Dr. Wickham's villainies, as they have partially come to light, slews him to be a monster in crime whose existence is a damming biot upon humanity, and of whom the world must rid itself by a speedy and retributive justice."

METROPOLITAN THEATER .- Last night was presented at this house, the comedy of the "Poor Gentlemen," cast with as much excellence as could be desired, save in one or two particulars. The "Dr. Ollaped" of Mr. John Brougham, and the "Sir Robert Bramble" of Mr. Blake, are too well known to the public as performances of the best quality to call for further mention here. Mr. Charles Walcot played "Stephen Harrowby" with commendable carefulness, although he does not shine with his highest luster in dialect parts. Mr. George Holland, in his accustomed character of "Humphrey Dobbins," acted the part acceptably. Miss Ada Clifton is the best

"Mary Worthington" we remember ever to have seen. She renders that namby-pamby part with so much grace and energy as to make it really a prominent feature of the play. Mrs. W. H. Smith strug-gled hard with the "Honorable Miss Lucretia McTab." The play to-night is " John Bull."

-A gentleman in Cleveland, Ohio, writes to a friend in this city, saying:

"I happened in at the Jail last evening just as the Oberlin prisoners were at worship. It was a spectacle for this boasted Republic! Christian men were earnestly supplicating God on their knees in prison to give them strength to bear patiently the oppressor's wrong and to forgive their enemies. I listened, marveled, and wished myself one of them in deed and in spirit. Their heroism is nobler than facing the Austrian cannon's mouth."

THURSDAY, June 16-P. M. There was a somewhat increased business at the Stock Board to-day, but the features of the market were much the same as for a few days past. The purchases of the fancies are mainly to cover maturing short contracts, which are put out again with considefable Irredom-some of the bears having acquired fresh confidence in the probability of a decline daring the dull Summer months. Cash stock of the active fancies is rather more plenty than of late, but there is still difficulty in making deliveries of some descriptions. The market is emphatically a street market one of small fluctuations, with a general tendency downward. The movement in Panama continues to attract attention, and the stock sold as high as 124 between Boards. Some short contracts, which have matured within a day or two, have caused a demand for stock, and the upward tendency has been assisted by a coming dividend of 6 P cent, which will be declared on Monday next, and the general prosperity of the Company under the largely increased travel between the Atlantic and Pacific sides of the continent, induced by reduced rates of passenger fares. Pacific Mail was steady at 68@681, but the transactions were quite limited. Coal Shares were dull again, but without important change. Delaware soid at 911; Pennsylvania Coal at 82, s30, and Cumberland at 162. The Eastern Railroads appear to be in slightly increased demand. Stonington sold at 67 and Norwich and Worcester at 354. Illinois Central improved to 584. In Bank Stock the business is quite limited; confidence in Bank Stocks has been recently much shaken. The two heavy losses suffered by the Union Bank within two years. have awakened attention to the constant liabilities of such institutions to be the victims of frauds outside and inside the bank building. The Western shares continue to drag. Southern Guaranteed is especially heavy, and sold at 29. Michigan Central has also a downward tendency, its Boston supporters having de-serted it. Toledo, at the cose, could have been bought at 251. The new Board of Directors, elected yesterday, are in the interest of the Lake Shore and New-York Central Road, with an infusion of the C. C. and Cincinnati Road, and it is thought the Cleveland and Toledo will be worked to favor these roads at the expense of other connecting roads. State stocks have been active and buoyant: Missouri 6s sold to the extent of $130,000, advancing to 864-some of the bears paying heavy losses on this security. There is a constant, although not large, absorption of this and other State stocks for Western banking, while we hear of but few coming back; Virginias are 971, North Carolina, 971. The quotation for Government 5e is 104. At the close the market was very inactive in the street—the only business being in Central, which was steady at 731. The last prices were: Missouri was steady at 734. The last prices were: missouri 6s, 864 2864; Canton Company, 184 2194; Qumber-land Ceal Company, 164 217; New-York Central Railroad, 734 2732; Eric Railroad, 64 264; Harlem Railroad, 104 211; Harlem Railroad, Preferred, 354 @36; Hudson River Railroad, 314 @311; Reading Railroad, 404 @ 402; Michigan Central Railroad, 404 @ 402; Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad, 9@91; do. There is but little doing in foreign Exchange, and the quotations are unchanged.

From The London Times (City Article) June 3.

The Bank of England to-day have reduced their rate of discount from 4. Feart, at which it had stood from the 5th of May, to 3. Feart, at which it had stood from the 5th of May, to 3. Feart, and as the Bank discount no bills having more than three months to run, the propriety of this movement cannot be questioned. It affords no sign, however, of any change in public opinion with regard to the contingencies to which the money market must for the future be exposed. When the war actually commenced a month back no one expected that a scarcity of capital in the London market would be one of its immediate results. Indeed, the contrary was almost certain to be the case, inst in proportion to any contraction of trade that might ensue. The impression simply was that, as there would henceforth be a daily possibility of extraordinary events being amounced without a moment's warning, adoubted to create general panic, or involve any special department of trade in disturbance, all prudent persons would make timely provision against being taken by surprise.

In meeting this simultaneous demand, the banks and discount voive any special department of trade in disturbance, all prudent persons would make timely provision against being taken by surprise.

In meeting this simultaneous demand, the banks and discount houses had merely to determine the additional charge that would fairly compensate them for the risk. They axen, or at least they should have known, that there had been no sudden expansion of trade to produce a call for capital, and, consequently, that whatever they might let out would return to them in the shape of deposits at interest. All that the commercial community wanted was to protect themselves against sudden emergencies, and if the various financial establishments were willing to negotiate bills at 4 Pent. and receive back the money at 31, undertaking the liability of producing it at three days notice whenever it might be required, the bargsin—which was merely equivalent to a payment at the rate of one P cent P annum for insurance—was dearly rational on the part of the public. The discount houses and joint stock backs now find that they did not sufficiently estimate the extent and performance of the distruct which pervades the commercial world as to future political possibilities. It appears that beyond all their expectations they are flooded with the money which the traders of the country are wise enough to wish to deposit in such manner as to secure the certainty of having it within call.

Hereupon an endesvor is made to meet the difficulty by a re-which the traders of the country are wise choosing to wish it deposits in such manner as to secure the certainty of having it within call.

Hereupon an endeavor is made to meet the difficulty by a reduction in their rates of discount on the one hand, and of allowance for deposits at call on the other. This will render their position less enerous, because a margin of 1 P cent tells better upon a discount of 3; than of 4]. But it is scarcely satisfactory to those who have discounted bills at 4; under the impression that the amount would be received back from them at 3; to be teld shortly afterward that the allowance is reduced to 2;. Where they calculated upon paying an insurance of 1 P cent, they then oiscover that it is 2 P cent. That, however, is merely a point between the discount establishment and their cilents. The only thing to be shown at present is that so far from the giut of money being an indication of a recovery of confidence, it is the strongest proof that could be afforded to the contrary.

Some people will say, "But the rise in Consols shows that money is being absorbed in that market, and this is a clear symptom that the distrust has become leas." It is a failacy, however, to suppose money can be absorbed in the stock market. For every buy or there must be a seller, and when A pays £1,000 for stock which he has bought of B, the simple result is that B, instead of A, is the person seeking to find employment for the amount. Any increase in the abundance of money naturally renders holders of stock disinclined to sell, because they do not see what they are to do with the proceeds, and, as there is always a certain demand for stock on the part, not merely of those who properly hvest social savings as they accrue, evident regard to price or other considerations, but also for settlements and for the accumulations on account of public institutions, the market is certain to tend upward so long as there is no drain of buillion, and the action of the commercial community in seeking discounts is accumulations on account of public institutions, the market certain to tend upward so long as there is no drain of buildion, an the action of the commercial community in seeking discounts; merely precautionary. The firmness of Consols would, there fore, be a very bad gauge of the actual opinion of capitalists as the probable course of the money market and its risks. Their judgment must be formed on other considerations, and most oververs will agree that the horizon at present is not free from warnings that it would be read to regard the existing revulsion as a permanent return to ease and safety.

We have to report a very quiet market, and a disposition on the part of buyers to hold off as long as possible. Some of our manufacturers are restive under the dull trade of the past fortnight, and seem disposed to submit to a reduction in prices. Any abatement in prices will not materially increase the aggregate sale. Manufacturers should give more attention to style, even in their plain goods. In fancy fabries it is all important, and for plain-faced goods highly necessary. Rubbish will not bring the cost of production, while goods that cost but a trifle more, but with more care in manufacture, will sell at a good

Sr. John's, N. F., June 9—The survey on the steamship Edinburg has amounted to nothing so far, the action of the seree is the effort to force the vessel further on the beach having the water so moddy as to prevent the discovery of anything beneath the surface; extra and powerful pumps have been piaced in the fore compartments, and there seems to be a good prospect of freelag
